FOR IMMEDIATE PRESS RELEASE

NOTICE TO EMPLOYERS OF MINIMUM WAGE WORKERS
RE: INCREASE OF THE NATIONAL MINIMUM WAGE IN TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

The Ministry of Labour and Small Enterprise Development (MOLSED) wishes to remind all Employers of Minimum Wage Workers that the Government of the Republic of Trinidad and Tobago has increased the National Minimum Wage from $15.00 to $17.50 per hour, effective December 01, 2019.

As a result, no worker, including migrant workers should be paid less than $17.50 per hour which is equivalent to a monthly salary of $3,033.33. It is important to note that a 'Minimum Wage Worker' is classified as any worker earning an hourly wage of $26.25 per hour or less and by law, these workers are entitled to benefits such as overtime rates, vacation leave, sick leave, meal breaks under the Minimum Wages Act Chapter 88:04.

The Labour Inspectorate Unit of the Ministry, is currently on a National Minimum Wage Sensitization drive, and one of its mandate is to monitor and enforce the Minimum Wages Act and Orders. This Unit advises workers and their employers on their Rights and Responsibilities and also conducts inspections and investigates complaints to ensure compliance with the law.

Employers of Minimum Wage Workers are required to:-

- Keep, maintain and retain wage records for a period of three (3) years in order to show compliance
- Provide the Inspector with information about wages and terms and conditions of work
- Allow the Inspector to inspect wage records and pay sheets
- Permit the Inspector to interview workers

Breaches to the law, can lead to penalties and fines by the Industrial Court.
